OVERVIEW

With robust changes in macroeconomic behaviour, financial services industries and large companies today are confronting with a series of substantial impending risks that will require organisations to rethink traditional approaches to risk management.

Organisations are vigorously looking for solutions to identify, analyse, treat, and predict risks before it happens to ensure their organisation are well equipped with the necessary tools in order to mitigate risk and stay ahead of the competition. The lingering effects of COVID-19 and natural disasters happening all around the globe at a higher rate are reshaping the risk management landscape at a more critical rate than ever before.

This 2-day conference by Finnovex will be provide exclusive insights from key leaders, decision makers, and regulators on how they are coping with the ever changing risk management framework and volatile environment in the APAC market
